

Issue #31 | נצבים | September 18, 2025 | 25 Elul 5785

Dear Parents and Friends of the Yeshiva,

The Yeshiva is experiencing an unforgettable Elul filled with growth, inspiration, and achdus. The Beis Medresh is alive with the sound of Torah and tefillah, creating a truly electric Elul atmosphere. Last Motzei Shabbos, after a delicious Meleva Malka and a moving Kumzitz, we were privileged to hear a powerful pre-Selichos drasha from HaGaon HaRav Nissan Kaplan shlit"a, which set the tone for heartfelt tefillos and Selichos together.

Last Shabbos was a highlight, as the Rosh Yeshiva and his family joined the talmidim for a beautiful In-Shabbos. From the delicious seudos, uplifting zemiros, and inspiring divrei Torah, to the warm bonds of friendship formed, it was truly unforgettable. A special Oneg Shabbos with Q&A and the participation of the Rebbeim deepened the connection and inspiration.

The talmidim were further uplifted this past week by stirring divrei hisorerus from the Tzadik HaMekubal, HaRav Gamliel Rabinowitz shlit"a, preparing us for the Yemei HaDin with clarity and passion. Afterwards the talmidim each received a personal Bracha. The Beis Medresh has been filled with sincere davening and constant learning, reflecting the true spirit of Elul.

Looking ahead, Rosh Hashana tefillos in the Yeshiva promise to be even more beautiful and heartzig than in past years, with the Rosh Yeshiva and the Mashgiach leading the tefillos, joined by Rebbeim and their families, in our expanded Beis Medresh, alongside our growing family of talmidim and visiting alumni.

Wishing all a Kesiva V'Chasima Tova.

Message from the Rosh Yeshiva

Dear Parents and Friends of the Yeshiva,

As we approach the ימי הרצון וימים נוראים, we pause to reflect with gratitude on a year that has been filled with extraordinary brocha and siyata d'shmaya.

It is impossible to adequately express my feelings of simcha and hoda'ah to the Eibeshter for the great hatzlacha the Yeshiva has experienced. To be zocheh to see the Yeshiva grow from 20 talmidim to 83 in just four years is a remarkable blessing. Yet perhaps the greatest nachas is that, despite this growth, the warm and heimishe "Sussman family" atmosphere of the Yeshiva has only deepened and strengthened.

There is nothing more uplifting than a Yeshiva filled with positive, joyous energy — while at the same time remaining a true makom Torah, where our bochurim are driven with passion and determination to shteig in their learning and avodas Hashem.

I extend my heartfelt thanks for your partnership — whether as devoted parents or as dedicated supporters of our makom Torah. Together, we share in the privilege of building a Yeshiva that shapes lives of Torah and yiras Shamayim.

At this crucial moment in Klal Yisroel's history, we have much to be thankful for and much to daven for. I will, bli neder, keep you and your families in mind in my tefillos, and I humbly ask you to do the same for us.

My bracha to us all is:

כשם שהקב"ה בירך עלינו את השנה הזאת ואת כל מיני תבואתה לטובה, כן
יברך את השנה הבאה עלינו לטובה. וישפיע עלינו שפע ברכה והצלחה בכל
מעשה ידינו, ונזכה לראות נחת דקדושה מכל צאצאינו.

With warmest wishes for a Kesiva V'Chasima Tova,

Rabbi Simcha Sussman
Rosh Yeshiva

Kollel Boker Chaim V'Shalom

Our Pre-Shacharis learning program is back! Talmidim start their day with a 30-minute seder before davening, learning with a chavrusa or a small chaburah led by the Rosh Yeshiva or Mashgiach. Regular attendees enjoy boutique breakfasts, and top participants receive monthly prizes.

You can help us make this program succeed! Consider sponsoring a week of breakfasts or monthly awards and join us in giving our talmidim the best start to their day.

Sponsorships can be dedicated l'ilui nishmas or as a merit for a special need, creating a lasting zechus through Torah learning.

- Full weekly sponsorship: $360
- Partial sponsorship: $180

Special thank you to the sponsors:

First week:

Mr. George & Leora Hellman
